

FRESHFARM

Farmers Market Safety Policy

FRESHFARM reserves the right to set policies that keep customers, vendors, and staff safe. Anyone that demonstrates behavior considered threatening or disruptive to market operations will be asked to leave at the discretion of market management. Failure to comply with the policies listed below will result in immediate suspension or expulsion from the market space. Police should be called in situations of immediate danger.

1. Customers, vendors, and vendors' staff may not participate in activities within the market space that impedes or disrupts ongoing market operations.
2. Disruptive behavior, threats, or any acts of violence will not be tolerated.
3. Language that disrupts the market operations will not be tolerated. Examples include shouting, berating, cursing, etc.
4. Signs and flyers are not permitted to be displayed or distributed within the market space unless approved by market management.
5. Harassment of any nature will not be tolerated.
6. Firearms and other weapons are not welcomed.
7. All customers, vendors, and staff must adhere to all safety COVID-19 safety policies including but not limited to use of face masks, social distancing, and entry at designated entry and exit points.